FIRST THINGS IN IOWA COUNTY

The first settlement in Iowa county was made by Edward R. Ricord, a little south of Old Man's Creek, within the present limits of Greene township, in March, 1840 This was five years previous to the organization of the county which was in 1845

Edward R. Ricord was born at Cape Henlopen(now Lewis) Delaware, Feb. 17, 1814, At five years of age he removed with his parents to Cincinnati, Ohio where he lived till about eighteen years old. he then removed to Fayette county Ind. where he lived about seven years. Mr. Ricord then being 26 years old and recently married, took a boat for St. Louis and thence to Muscatine. He married Miss Jane Gillin January 9- 1839. Leaving his family at Muscatine he journeyed on foot to Iowa City and stopped a day or two, then proceeded on foot to Iowa county, and after inspecting the land proceeded to mark his claim. As he was doing so he met a man by the name of John Wykoff who lived a half mile east of the Iowa county line, Mr Wykoff had built a cabin in the fall of 1839 and lived in it with his wife and two children and a brother.

With the help of Mr Wykoff they took a surveyor's chain and measured west to section 3 and here Mr Ricord laid out his claim, then with the help of Mr Wykoff and of his brother Samuel with two yoke of oxen, in one week's time they completed the first house built for or by a settler in Iowa county. He then went for his wife and children and returned to his cabin about the first of May 1840, commenced breaking prairie

This was the farthest west of any house in the Territory of Iowa.

Mr Ricord reared a large and highly respected family educating the children at the University of Iowa City, p 709

The eldest, Mary Viola died March 16, 1877; Ann died when small Laura married Walter M. Stover lived in Marengo; Addie married George Stover; Jennie married and removed to Kansas; Race died at the age of ten and Lee, Mrs Ricord died March 11, 1877 and Mr Ricord married a second time to Almina Patterson 1830

The history of Iowa county begins with the history of Green Greene township. Other settlers in the township were:

James McKray in the summer of 1840, came from the state of Pennsylvania. Edward and Erastus Convers came next, Erastus Had a wife and four boys; but Edward was a bachelor and by trade a mill-wright. Both came from Pennsylvania. Erastus died in 1858 William put up many excellant mills thru t h's section for he was a good mechanic He died in the year 1860.

The thrid settler was Henry Starry. He came from Ohio with Erastus Convers.

Michael Roup came in the year 1841 from Pennsylvania and settled in Greene T ownship.

Charles Jones came in 1841 and took a claim in Greene He was from Ireland, died about 1870

William Butler came about the year 1845 and still lives there.

Elisha and Jacob came with their brother Edward R. Ricord, Elisha took a claim near but did not stay long, Jacob did not stay long but went to Iowa City where he lived many years.

John Furlong came in 1841, originally from Ireland. He died about 1860

Edward Furlong came in 1841, originally from Ireland. He died about 1860

Edward Spratt came in the year 1844 and settled on section 1. He died in 1876 leaving a family

Thomas Boyle came from Ohio about 1848. He was in the Mexican war and with a "land warrant" laid his claim

Reuben Smith came in 1843

John Webster, a United Brethren preacher, came in a very early day and settled on section 1. He came from Ohio, died 1875

The first death was that of the wife of James McKray which happened in the fall of 1842, and was buried just east of his house. This was the first white person to rest beneath the soil of Iowa county.

The first marriage in the township was that of William C Carter, and Sidney Ann Tinkle, April 19, 1846.

The first school was kept in Edward R Ricord's house and taught by Miss Caroline Cole in the year 1844.

The first school house was built in section 3 by John Coulter though Edward Ricord was contractor. The first teacher in this new school house was Emily Umohrey. She had twenty scholars.

The first church was built by the Catholics, a little frame structure on section 5, The first Sunday school was in the

Ricord school house and Mrs Ricord the superintendant,
